A fantastic trade from start to finish with a few less about but plenty of quality for buyers to get stuck into. Demand has certainly improved across the board and hopefully it will continue over the coming months as supply lines become tighter. Highlight of the day goes to Charolais bulls selling to £510, £480, £470, £460 and heifers to £455 twice and £450, all from Mr D.J. Colclough and G. Green & Son – definitely the in demand breed right now! On to the section round ups, Friesians have been the trade of the day with an astonishing average of £97 per head... who says that dairy bulls aren't wanted anymore!

Top call was £170 for PC. & SG. Thelwell, Nantwich. Best types at £130 to £170 and mediums and smalls £30 to £120. The native bulls have been a fast trade all day with several buying accounts in operation. Top price was £385 for a Hereford from PD. & RL. Fenton, Ridley and Angus to £290 for L.E. Weston & Sons, Whitchurch. Best bulls at £200 to £250, mediums at £120 to £180 and smalls at £60 to £110.

The Continental bulls have been another strong trade with the mediums being the most in demand and looking dear in comparison with the best. Top call went to a Charolais from Mr D.J. Colclough, Sandbach at £510 who also sold Blues to £400. Best at £280 to £350, mediums at £220 to £260, smalls at £120 to £200.
