Client testimonial

“As my husband had recently passed away, I decided to offer my home for sale. I researched locally-based Estate Agents and Barbers Rural impressed with its considerable experience in the sale of country properties.

At all stages of the process, Annabel and Steph communicated closely with me, and were always available for information, explanation and advice. Accompanied viewings took place on schedule and I always understood what and when the next step would take place.

My house sold and sold well. I would happily recommend Barbers Rural to anyone wishing to put their property on the market. They are indeed experts in what they do, and offer exceptional customer service. ★★★★★

Passionate about rural property
