813 REARING CALVES

Auctioneers : Ben Baggott (07791 791356) & Jason Brown (07774 816384)

More calves forward this week and a stronger turnout of buyers ringside — often the case during half term! With the packed-out ring, trade was once again very fast, maintaining the momentum of last week. A superb show of quality throughout, with 94 of the best calves selling for over £500. Mediums were good to sell but remain the best value, while a fair number of smaller sorts were forward. Buyers remain selective, but there was plenty of competition today, which helped lift both the bottom and top ends of the trade. Considering our Welsh buyers continue to be absent, it was a very pleasing trade for the time of year.

Friesian Bulls — A good entry of quality and plenty of interest in good types. Top price was £250 from James & Tom Oulton, Audley. Best: £180-£250, Mediums: £100-£170, Smalls: £40-£80.

Native Bulls — A good trade, with plenty on offer. They were probably the least sought after today so volume buyers took advance; but still everyone should be happy with their prices. Top price: Angus at £515 from J&AJ. Weatherby, Sandbach. Best: £300-£420 Mediums: £180-£270, Smalls: £100-£150.

Continental Bulls — An excellent trade, there is no let up in the demand for the best and stronger mediums but even the smaller bulls have been on fire today. Top price: £820 for a super Charolais bull from J&AJ. Weatherby, Sandbach. Best: £500-£600, Mediums: £375-£475, Smalls: £250-£350.

Native Heifers — A large number of heifers on offer and a super trade for time of year but still a lot of small/young types which buyers are selective over. Top price: Herefords at £360 from Oulton Lowe Farms Ltd, Tarporley. Best: £230-£320, Mediums: £150-£220, Smalls: £75-£135.

Continental Heifers — A great trade for all grades as they held extremely well to the finish. Top price: £620 for a Blue from P&Y Farming, Stafford. Best: £425-£500, Mediums: £250-£375, Smalls: £150-£240. Small show of young weanlings included 3 month Friesian bulls from W.H. Holloway & Son, Shrewsbury at £495.

FARMER
RURAL AWARDS
2025

CELEBRATING SOME OF THE VERY BEST IN FARMING

On Wednesday 22nd October, the Barbers Rural team attended the brilliant inaugural Farmer Rural Awards ceremony and gala dinner, hosted by The Farmer in association with the Shropshire Star. Almost 200 guests from across the industry came together to celebrate and recognise the businesses, organisations and individuals who work tirelessly to ensure our rural communities continue to thrive.

Barbers Rural Partner Dan Bowden was also honoured to serve on the judging panel, tasked with the challenging job of selecting winners from so many outstanding entries.

Partners Annabel Fearnall, Dan Bowden and Harriet Jones enjoyed a fantastic evening alongside guests Rob Browne (RB Rural), Rob Bebbington (Alderford Lake), Ed Brown (Aecer), Karen Hamer (Barclays), Max Beardmore (RBC Brewin Dolphin), Nick Playford and Sean Spinetto (Talbots Law).

A huge congratulations to all nominees and winners including the Newport Show, named Rural Event of the Year and a special mention to Harvey Pyke who received the Young Farmer of the Year award – an inspiration to everyone within the farming sector.
